Great Coffee in Taos? Yup.

The Coffee Spot

You mean you can get great coffee in Taos?

Yup.

And you can park here, too, not like the places downtown.

Offering espresso and fresh pastries Extensive lunch menu Free Wi-Fi. Great Service and Friendly Atmosphere. Owned and operated by Eric Tate and Anpo Cash.

Try the red chile espresso as a latte. Wonderful taste and aroma. For a little extra piquancy (I am a chilehead), have them sprinkle a bit if crushed red on the top. This is delicious stuff, and will become a regular stop when we visit Taos (about six times a year).
